FRATERNAL YEAR 2017-2018    CHARTERED IN OCTOBER 1953    February 2019

Grand Knight's Corner

Last month I talked about concentrating on small kindnesses which I could perform for someone else whether recognized or not. I'd like to add a part two and say that this month I am going to make an effort to start smiling and waving more when people make those same kindnesses to me, let call them small gratitude's. Gratitude from the Latin "gratus" and defined as the quality of being thankful; readiness to show appreciation for and to return kindness. I find that to be a good lead in for why I'm grateful for being a Knight. I get to claim membership in a group that does all it can to better and benefit the world in which we live. Whether its on the worldwide, national or local front the Knights of Columbus is a force. Let's talk quickly about your local council. Council 3724 is spread across the United States encompassing nearly 260 members. In direct support of those local councils all over, 3724 has donated 135 pints of blood. 15,000 hours of community service projects, 7,400 hours to family service, nearly 18,000 hours of faith-based service projects, 5,000 hours of service in support of culture of life and 6,000 hours of support to families of the sick and bereaved. Directly to our local parish Mary Help 3724 has provided close to 2,000 hours of labor in renovations to the church and the new FYI center. I am still tallying the amount of money in donations and support 3724 has made to local area charities but we are close to the 30,000.00 mark. How could any member of this council or their family not be proud to be associated with such a fraternity? Council 3724 is a force for good. As Christ himself said, "What you do for the least of my brothers that you do for me." It is an honor and privilege to serve as your grand knight. Use some of those numbers when someone asks you, "What is a Knight, and what do the Knights of Columbus do?" I have spent a lot of time this year looking inward at myself and trying to touch base with some of the tenants of our faith as I remember them from school. This last month I found myself going over the gifts of the Holy Spirit. In the Book of Isaiah 11:2-3, the Gifts of the Holy Spirit are;

Wisdom helps us recognize the importance of others and the importance of keeping God central in our lives.

Understanding is the ability to comprehend the meaning of God's message.

Knowledge is the ability to think about and explore God's revelation, and also to recognize there are mysteries of faith beyond us.

Counsel is the ability to see the best way to follow God's plan when we have choices that relate to him.

Fortitude is the courage to do what one knows is right.

Piety helps us pray to God in true devotion.

Fear of the Lord is the feeling of amazement before God, who is all-present, and whose friendship we do not want to lose.

What are some of the ways we can bring ourselves to a closer understanding of those gifts? I am currently taking a faith-based journey offered as one of the many services by our home parish. Per the guide that came with the course, I think I will be able to work on my Understanding, Knowledge, Counsel and Fear of the Lord in this course alone.

My Knight of the Month was our worthy Treasurer Bro. Larry DeWitt, Larry faithfully writes out the checks for our donations and expenses and spends countless hours in consult with the financial secretary making sure the books are accurate. He is a quiet voice of reason for me and the service he performs is largely unrecognized. Thank you, Larry. My Family of the Month was the Cyphers (Dan and Jana), Dan received Knight of the month earlier this year but the awesome snacks and setup for the get together after the memorial mass and the effort Dan has put in as our new family director could not have achieved success without the help and aid of Jana. Make sure to congratulate them when you see them around the hall or the parish. Ut in omnibus glorificetur Deus Vivat Jesus, GK Erbacher

INSURANCE CORNER

Our Guarantees Set Us Apart

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can – guarantees. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. That's peace of mind, and that's what we offer with every product in our portfolio.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee the rate and your principal in our retirement annuities.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

Our Order is among the highest rated life insurers in North America. AM Best has rated the Knights of Columbus "A++ Superior" for 40 consecutive years. It's a testament to our track record for excellence and security.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Knights of Columbus, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. We pledge to serve our brother Knights, and their families, according to our Golden Rule: "In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

Let's talk soon to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

St. Valentine, the Real Story

Flowers, candy, red hearts and romance. That's what Valentine's day is all about, right? Well, maybe not.

The origin of this holiday for the expression of love really isn't romantic at all—at least not in the traditional sense. Father Frank O'Gara of Whitefriars Street Church in Dublin, Ireland, tells the real story of the man behind the holiday—St. Valentine.

"He was a Roman Priest at a time when there was an emperor called Claudius who persecuted the church at that particular time," Father O'Gara explains. "He also had an edict that prohibited the marriage of young people. This was based on the hypothesis that unmarried soldiers fought better than married soldiers because married soldiers might be afraid of what might happen to them or their wives or families if they died."

"I think we must bear in mind that it was a very permissive society in which Valentine lived," says Father O'Gara. "Polygamy would have been much more popular than just one woman and one man living together. And yet some of them seemed to be attracted to Christian faith. But obviously the church thought that marriage was very sacred between one man and one woman for their life and that it was to be encouraged. And so it immediately presented the problem to the Christian church of what to do about this."

"The idea of encouraging them to marry within the Christian church was what Valentine was about. And he secretly married them because of the edict."

Valentine was eventually caught, imprisoned and tortured for performing marriage ceremonies against command of Emperor Claudius the second. There are legends surrounding Valentine's actions while in prison.

"One of the men who was to judge him in line with the Roman law at the time was a man called Asterius, whose daughter was blind. He was supposed to have prayed with and healed the young girl with such astonishing effect that Asterius himself became Christian as a result."

In the year 269 AD, Valentine was sentenced to a three part execution of a beating, stoning, and finally decapitation all because of his stand for Christian marriage. The story goes that the last words he wrote were in a note to Asterius' daughter. He inspired today's romantic missives by signing it, "from your Valentine."

"What Valentine means to me as a priest," explains Father O'Gara, "is that there comes a time where you have to lay your life upon the line for what you believe. And with the power of the Holy Spirit we can do that—even to the point of death."

Valentine's martyrdom has not gone unnoticed by the general public. In fact, Whitefriars Street Church is one of three churches that claim to house the remains of Valentine. Today, many people make the pilgrimage to the church to honor the courage and memory of this Christian saint.

"Valentine has come to be known as the patron saint of lovers. Before you enter into a Christian marriage you want some sense of God in your life—some great need of God in your life. And we know, particularly in the modern world, many people are meeting God through his Son, Jesus Christ."

"If Valentine were here today, he would say to married couples that there comes a time where you're going to have to suffer. It's not going to be easy to maintain your commitment and your vows in marriage. Don't be surprised if the 'gushing' love that you have for someone changes to something less "gushing" but maybe much more mature. And the question is, is that young person ready for that?"

"So on the day of the marriage they have to take that into context," Father O'Gara says. "Love—human love and sexuality is wonderful, and blessed by God—but also the shadow of the cross. That's what Valentine means to me."
